Subscribe to Open to Launch in 2025

Subscribe to Open (S2O) is an equitable open access model for scholarly journals that enables subscription journals to open access to their current content without Article Processing Charges (APCs). The Project MUSE S2O program is built around our current journal collections model, and will launch with the calendar year 2025 subscription term.

WHY PROJECT MUSE?

We have a long-standing, 30 year reputation as a trusted and reputable platform for nonprofit publishers in scholarly publishing, with a diverse portfolio of high-quality journals and books spanning humanities and social sciences disciplines.

Our robust technological infrastructure and expertise in digital publishing, ensuring seamless implementation and management of S2O models while providing a user-friendly experience for publishers, libraries, and readers.

Visit our website to see our growing list of participating publishers and journals represented in our program:

Get Involved

Here's how you can get involved in our S2O program:

JOURNAL PUBLISHERS

Commit to our S2O program.

We offer guaranteed income with very little risk. This includes guaranteed royalties, depending on when you join.

LIBRARIANS

Simply subscribe to Project MUSE, renew your subscription, and consider a multi-year agreement.

When you renew early, you support this movement towards Open Access with an equitable, easy-to-manage model.
