

THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY PRESS SINGLE TITLE ONLINE SUBSCRIPTIONS

The following Terms and Conditions of access govern all Single Title Online Subscriptions provided through the Johns Hopkins University Press ("JHUP"). Subscribing Institutions (the "Subscriber") agree to these terms either by submitting an order for an online subscription.

I. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

A. Authorized Users

An institutional online subscription grants unlimited access to the full text of the Journal for educational, research, and personal use by the faculty, staff, students, alumni, library patrons, and other Authorized Users of the Subscriber's geographically-contiguous campus/institutional network. Distance learners, alumni, and other off-campus affiliates may access the Journal if their internet access is through the campus network or via a secure proxy server.

Subscribers are expected to make their best feasible efforts to enable access to the Journal only to faculty, students, staff, alumni, and walk-in library patrons using the campus' physical library facilities. There are no contractual limits on the number of Authorized Users from one campus at any given time.

B. Permitted

Provided that the copyright header attached to the article is retained, Authorized Users at the Subscriber's institution may:

1. download and print one copy of each article for personal use and archive contents on their own personal computers;
2. send one copy by email, hard copy, or fax to one person in the Subscriber's campus/institutional network at another location for that individual's personal use;
3. provide facsimile images that are exact representations of the print Journal pages or of printouts from the electronic database for interlibrary loan under CONTU (National Commission on New Technological Uses of Copyright Works) (<http://www.cni.org/docs/infopols/CONTU.html>) guidelines and distributed in paper, fax, or digital form; and
4. place selected listings and notices on the campus network to inform users of availability

C. Not Permitted

Authorized Users at the Subscriber's institution may not:

1. disseminate content from the Journal outside the geographically-contiguous campus or institution by any means, except as noted above;
2. transmit the digital source code, whether plain ASCII or tagged, and use contents and articles from the Journal in course packs;
3. systematically download content by robots or other automatic processes without explicit approval from JHUP;
4. burden server(s) with activities, such as computer programs, that automatically download content, commonly known as web robots, spiders, crawlers, wanderers, or accelerators. If there is evidence that such unauthorized activities have taken place, the Subscriber will be contacted, and access from the offending IP addresses may be shut down if a prompt resolution is not achieved. No refunds or credits will be given for time without access as a result of such activities;
5. remove, cover, overlay, obscure, block, or change any copyright notices, legends, or terms of use; or modify or create a derivative work of the Journal content without the prior written permission of the copyright holder;
6. re-use content for commercial use without prior, written permission of the copyright holder, including providing any fee-for-service use including providing access to or selling copies of the Journal or parts of the Journal; or
7. make agreements for access to the Journal content with individuals, organizations, vendors, affiliates, or partners, who are not Authorized Users

Regarding section B.2 above, if the Subscriber becomes aware of unauthorized access to the Journal, it will notify JHUP immediately and cooperate in locating and attempting to stop the specific individuals who are abusing the service. If the specific abuser(s) cannot be identified or stopped, JHUP has the right to withhold, suspend, or terminate access to any or all licensed content, without liability.

II. COPYRIGHT AND PERMISSIONS

Unless otherwise noted, the Publisher of the Journal holds the copyright, both as a compilation and as individual articles, on all materials published in the Journal, whether the material is in print or electronic form. All Journal content is subject to the "fair use" provisions of the United States or applicable international copyright laws www.copyright.gov/title17/92chap1.pdf.

In the event of a dispute between a Publisher and any contributor with respect to the electronic distribution of any article in the Journal, JHUP shall have the right to remove such article from the Journal, and will do so upon the Publisher's request.

Requests for authorization to distribute copies of articles in this database for use outside of the provisions listed above should be sent to the Copyright Clearance Center (CCC). In preparing your request, please note the name of the copyright holder of the article and follow the CCC instructions for that copyright holder. No permission requests should be sent to JHUP unless JHUP is the publisher of the Journal.

III. ACCESS AND AUTHENTICATION

The Project MUSE® file server permits entry by recognizing the authorized IP addresses of the Subscriber. Distance learners and alumni who access the internet via campus IP accounts or a secure proxy server may access the Journal, but access is not available through independent service providers.

At the time the order is placed, the Subscriber provides IP addresses for the computers that require access to the Journal. No credit is given for the submission of incorrect or incomplete IP ranges, or for IP information submitted late.

The Subscriber will make reasonable efforts to create and maintain appropriate security measures to ensure that only Authorized Users can access the Journal online. The Subscriber also affirms that all IP addresses provided for use of the Journal are controlled by its institution exclusively for internet access by Authorized Users. Valid IP addresses must not include those of publicly accessible proxy or cache servers.

IV. USAGE STATISTICS

JHUP shall provide, at the request of the Subscriber, COUNTER-compliant usage data on the articles downloaded, by Journal title, for private internal use by JHUP and the Subscriber only.

VI. SUBSCRIPTION TERMS

A. Subscription Activation

For access to be enabled, the Subscriber must have a paid subscription to the Journal and must provide valid IP addresses as stated in Section III above. An online subscription provides access to both current and available back issues of the Journal for a specific annual time period from January 1 through December 31. Once the subscription has expired, the Subscriber will have a two (2) month grace period, January and February, in which to renew their subscription to the Journal before access is canceled. A current paid subscription is necessary to continue to access to archival content.

B. Renewal

At renewal time, usually around October 1, Project MUSE® will post pricing information for the following year at <http://muse.jhu.edu/about/order/singles.html>. Renewal orders must be paid in full by February 28 to ensure the Subscriber's continued access to the Journal. Orders may be placed through library subscription agencies.

C. Termination

No refunds or cancellations are allowed. JHUP may terminate online access prior to the expiration of the term in the event of a violation by the Subscriber if such violation has not been remedied within sixty (60) days of written notice from JHUP specifying the nature of the violation. In the event of termination or expiration of the subscription for any reason, any further access by Authorized Users to the Journal shall terminate.

VII. ADDITIONAL TERMS

If any of these terms shall be held to be invalid, illegal, unenforceable, or in conflict with the law of any jurisdiction, the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not be in any way affected or impaired thereby.

JHUP will not be held liable for any delays, inaccuracies, errors or omissions in Project MUSE®, in the transmission or delivery of all or any part thereof, or for any damages arising from any of the foregoing. JHUP does not represent or endorse the accuracy or reliability of any content.

Please direct any questions regarding these terms to Journals Customer Support at jnlcirc@press.jhu.edu.

If the Subscriber becomes aware of infractions upon these terms, it shall report these to JHUP immediately.
